

DISTRICT MARKSMEN
SELECTED FOR THE TEAM

George E. Cook and S. B. Wetherald to Shoot at Bisley.

(Special to The Washington Times.)

SEA GIRT, N. J., May 21.—The competition for positions on the All-American team, to shoot at Bisley, England, on July 11, for the Palma trophy, ended yesterday afternoon, and two representatives of the District of Columbia National Guard have been selected as members of the team. They are Privates George E. Cook and Samuel B. Wetherald, who are among those who made the highest scores ever registered at the Sea Girt range. Although Private Cook fell off somewhat in his shooting during the last two days, he still managed to hold on to fifth place, with the best marksmen the world has ever produced. Private Wetherald, who has shot remarkably well this spring, and shot evenly and regularly on all three days, finished seventh and will doubtless prove a valuable man on the American team.

Lieutenant Farrow finished ninth in the running, and his work on the three days was consistent and above the average, but he is irregular in his shooting.

The following men will compose the team: Capt. Horace M. Bell, Second New Jersey; Lieut. K. V. Casey, Seventy-first New York; Private George Cook, Company A, Third Battalion, District of Columbia National Guard; Sgt. George Doyle, Seventy-first New York; Lieut. Thomas Holcomb, Jr., United States Marine Corps; Quartermaster Sergeant J. H. Keogh, Sixth Massachusetts; Private H. H. Lelezer, Sixth Pennsylvania; Capt. William B. Martin, Second New Jersey; Corporal W. D. Short, Seventh New York; Corporal Charles B. Winder, Sixth Ohio; Private Samuel B. Wetherald, Company A, Third Battalion, District of Columbia National Guard; Lieut. A. Ewells, Seventy-first New York.

Alternates—Quartermaster Sergeant Franklin Phillips, First Troop, New Jersey; Private Howard Gensel, First New Jersey; Capt. H. E. Evans, Sixty-ninth New York.

The captain of the team, Horace M. Bell, is a product of the District of Columbia, and one of whom Washington has just cause to be proud. He is a son of Major James E. Bell, inspector general of rifle practice of the District of Columbia National Guard. Young Bell is an inspector of rifle practice, of one of the National Guards of New Jersey.

The following are individual scores at $80, $90, and $100 yards, respectively, in the firing yesterday, with the individual totals for the day, the individual continued totals for Monday and Tuesday, and the individual grand totals for the three days' shooting in the competition for places on the all-American rifle team, the competitors being listed in the order in which they finished.

CONSUMPTION IS CONTAGIOUS

All physicians admit that consumption is contagious.

As the sputum dries, the bacilli, or germ poison, which it contains, are thrown into the atmosphere, and as laden with catarrhal discharges, they are breathed into weak lungs, these poisons take root and consumption is developed. The only way to prevent this disease is to breathe into the air pipes or bronchial tubes the vapors of a healing oil laden with germ-killing remedy. No medicine taken into the stomach has ever yet cured genuine consumption.

According to the World's Consumption Congress of Physicians, which met in London, a year ago last July, the only germ-killing remedy that has been successful is the one discovered by Prof. Koch of Berlin, and manufactured under the supervision of the German government, and is called the "Koch Tuberculin."

Although as an injection it failed, it has been wonderfully successful when given by the Koch inhalation process. This process was first introduced into this country by Dr. Edward Koch, after whom the system was named, and is administered by the German-American Koch Lung Cure Co., 739 Eleventh Street, Washington.

Send for the Koch Lung Cure booklet, containing testimonials and describing the great treatment.

ALEXANDRIA NEWS NOTES

Lyceum Founder's Day.

The spacious hall of the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum in Duke Street was crowded last night with an attentive and appreciative audience, which gathered to witness the celebration of Founder's Day, by the Lyceum. The speaker of the occasion was the Rev. Edward I. Devitt, S. J., of Georgetown University, who delivered a beautiful and instructive eulogy on the founder of the Lyceum, the late Dennis O'Kane, S. J. Father Devitt described to the audience the life of Father O'Kane from his youth to his death.

Father Devitt was introduced to the audience by the Rev. H. J. Cutler, the pastor of St. Mary's Church here. Father Cutler made a few remarks in praise of the work of the Lyceum.

The musical part of the program was as follows: Overture, orchestra; alto solos, Nellie O'Hare, of Washington, D. C.; baritone solos, P. F. Downey, of this city; music, orchestra; tenor solos, John A. Finnegan, of Washington; music, orchestra; duet, tenor and bass, Finnegan and Murray; soprano solos, Nellie Carrigan, of Washington, D. C.; bass solos, T. Murray, of Washington, D. C.; soprano solos, Hiltrude Burroughs, of this city; trio, Finnegan and Murray and Miss Carrigan; music, orchestra. The accompanists for the singers were A. D. Mayo, of Washington, and Mrs. Harry S. Barker and Laura Greenwell, of this city.

Regents Entertained.

One hundred and forty-eight years ago Col. George Washington left Mount Vernon and was entertained at the Carlyle House by its hospitable owner whose guests were at that time General Bradock and staff. Yesterday the regents came from Mount Vernon and were entertained at the same Carlyle House by the same N. Cummings, the author, Dolie Zimmerman, Alice Chinn, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. A. D. Brockett, Phil Wattle, Olive Lyons, Ruth Ashton, Mrs. N. P. Burke, Fannie Herbert, Ellen Herbert, Agnes Bryant, Melissa Hill, Mrs. F. J. Brooke, and a number of men who had been invited to be present at the entertainment.

Tea was served and after the mansion had been inspected, Hon. Lewis H. Machen welcomed in the name of the Society for the Preservation of Historic Alexandria the Mount Vernon regents. The address was delivered in the parlor in which, in 1765, five Colonial governors held a council with General Bradock in reference to the three campaigns then about to be undertaken against the French possessions in America.

For a Patrol Wagon.

The regular monthly meeting of the police commissioners was held at the mayor's office in the city hall last night and there were present the Hon. George L. Simpson, mayor, presiding, and Commissioners E. E. Lawler and E. C. Graham.

A communication was received from C. J. W. Summers, secretary of the board of fire wardens, in regard to the purchase of a patrol wagon for the police department, which wagon it is proposed will be driven by the drivers of the fire apparatus, and the horses of the various companies, to be used in return to draw the wagon.

E. E. Lawler, secretary, then presented the meeting with a petition signed by a number of citizens, asking that the resignation of Policeman Griffith be not accepted. His honor the mayor explained that the policeman had tendered his resignation to him, but he had held it to await the action of the board. After some discussion the matter was laid over until the next meeting.

Confederate Day.

Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, are making extensive preparations for the celebration of Confederate Memorial Day, in this city, on Monday next. The usual day for this celebration is the 14th of May, but as that day falls on Sunday, the celebration will take place on the day following. The ceremonies will consist of the strewing of flowers on the graves of the Confederate dead in the graveyards near this city, of a short parade by Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, and the Alexandria Light Infantry, which will be followed by an oration at the monument, corner of Prince and Washington Streets. The ceremonies will end by the strewing of flowers on the mound in Christ Church yard, and by firing a volley over it and the sounding of taps. The oration at the monument will be delivered by the Hon. Judge R. T. W. Drake, of Charlottesville.

Pretty Home Wedding.

A pretty wedding was solemnized last evening at 5 o'clock at the home of Stephen H. Fegan, in upper Duke Street, when his daughter, Bessie, became the bride of Frank Heisley. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Kelly, of St. Mary's Church, and the happy couple left on the Norfolk steamer last night for a wedding trip.

Mr. Cheshire's Home.

Andrew Cheshire has bought from Owen J. Nugent a house and lot on the south side of King Street, between West and Payne Streets.

THE NEWS OF GEORGETOWN

Ascension Day Services.

Special services were held at Trinity Catholic Church this morning, the occasion being Ascension Day. Masses were held at 6, 7, and 9 o'clock, the latter being high mass, at which the boys' choir sang for the last time, until next fall.

To Attend Services.

The Knights of Potomac Commandery, No. 2, of Georgetown will attend divine services this evening at McKendree Church, Sixth and Massachusetts Avenue northwest. They will be addressed by the pastor of the church.

Musical Entertainment.

The members of St. John's Sunday school will give a musical and dramatic entertainment this evening at St. John's Parish Hall, for the benefit of the Sunday school. About fifty children will participate in the program.

To Install Rector.

The Rev. George Knollmeyer, of the diocese of central Pennsylvania, will begin his duties as assistant pastor of St. John's Episcopal Church the first Sunday in June. Mr. Knollmeyer has been one of the bishops of central Pennsylvania's assistants for the past year. He is a fine speaker. The office of assistant pastor at St. John's has just recently been created. Mr. Knollmeyer being the first to hold the office.

Clever Specialties.

The St. Alban's Minstrel Club entertained the young ladies of the Hearst School, and many outsiders, last night, at St. Alban's Parish Hall, Tenleytown. The specialties introduced were particularly entertaining.

Ice Cream Festival.

In the main class room of Linticum Institute last night the members of the school had their annual ice cream festival. The special guests were the members of the Linticum Dramatic Club and the members of the faculty. James H. Taylor, of the faculty, was the presiding officer. Speeches were made by the prize winners, Frank Tenneyson, Irvine Hoffman, Richard H. Robertson, and Edward A. Klock, the officers of the dramatic club, and each member of the faculty. An enjoyable evening was spent.

TO ABATE NUISANCE.

A final report on the complaint of M. A. Tappan, relative to the pond of water near Columbia Road and Keneaw Avenue, shows there is no sewer into which the pond may be drained. The report says the pond is being gradually filled with dirt, and that within a short time the lot will be raised to grade, and the nuisance abated. Commissioner Biddle suggests this to be the most practicable way to deal with the matter, in view of the repeated attempts of the Health Department to locate and prosecute the owner.

ROBERT HERMAN REINSTATED.

Robert Herman has been reinstated in the Patent Office as second assistant examiner at $1,400 per year. He was formerly first assistant examiner at $1,600, but had to retire because of bad health.

The Times
Camera Contest

Open to Amateur Photographers in the District of Columbia

For the encouragement of amateur photographers, The Times will offer each week three prizes for the best photographs submitted to it. It is designed that the field of competition be as broad as possible, that the amateur shall be altogether free in his choice of subject. His pictures may depict landscapes, seascapes, portraits, paintings, groups of statuary, or studies in genre.

Out of the whole number of photographs submitted, The Times will choose each week a group of about six and reproduce them in its Sunday issue.

Three of These Will Be Awarded Money Prizes of $5, $3, and $2 Respectively.

CONDITIONS—The conditions governing the awarding of prizes are as follows:

The prints submitted must be made by amateurs, readers of The Times, living within a radius of twenty miles of Washington, from negatives made by themselves and the result of their own work through all processes, and must be for the exclusive use of The Times in any way that it desires. Previous publication elsewhere will bar the print, and subsequent publication of a prize-winning print will not be allowed except by special permission of The Times. The print must bear the name and address of the sender, and it is safer to have prints mounted. No print will be returned.

Where possible, descriptive text may be sent, but this will not be considered in awarding the prize. The composition, artistic execution, and general attractiveness of the photograph will be taken into consideration in naming the prize-winner. Title of picture and name of sender should be written on the back of the print, and not sent separately.

Prints for the second competition must be delivered to The Times office not later than Saturday, May 23.

The successful competitors for this week will be announced and their photographs reproduced Sunday, May 31.

MOTHERS, DO YOU KNOW

Do you know that the many so-called birth medicines, and most remedies for women in the treatment of her delicate organs, contain more or less opium, morphine and strychnine? Do you know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons? Do you know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons? Do you know that you should not take internally any medicine for the pain accompanying pregnancy? Do you know that Mother's Friend is a purely vegetable preparation, and that it is applied externally only? Do you know that Mother's Friend is a celebrated preservative and that it has been in use over forty years, and that each bottle of the genuine bears the name of The Bradford Regulator Co. Do you know that when you use this perfect remedy during childbirth or throughout the entire period of gestation that you will be free of pain and bear healthy, clever children? These things are worth knowing. They are facts. Of druggists, $1.00. Accept no substitutes. Our book "Motherhood" free.
